

Acceptance Tests: Requirement 3
Author: Arone Susau
Student#: s3728977

Requirement 3: User Story #1
ID	1
Purpose	Test that the administrator can create an employee profile when all fields are correctly filled.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employees" page. 2. Click "Create New Employee" button.
	3. Fill in their employee details, first name, last name, age, DOB, address and employment type.
	4. Click "Create" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the profile was successfully created. The user is redirected back to the "Employees" page. The employees profile is displayed in the "Employees" page.

ID	2
Purpose	Test that the administrator cannot create an employee profile when fields are empty.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employees" page. 2. Click "Create New Employee" button. 3. Leave all fields Empty.
	4. Click "Create" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the there are empty fields to be filled out. The empty fields are highlighted. The page does not navigate away.

ID	3
Purpose	Test that the administrator cannot create an employee profile when fields contain incorrect values.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employees" page. 2. Click "Create New Employee" button. 3. Enter employee age as 5000.
	4. Enter remaining fields with standard test values.
	5. Click "Create" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the "age" field cannot be greater than 120. The "age" field is highlighted. The page does not navigate away.

Requirement 3: User Story #3
ID	4
Purpose	Test that the administrator can edit an employee profile when all fields are correctly filled.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard. Ensure there is at least 1 existing employee account.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employees" page. 2. Click first employee profile display in the table. 3. Click the "Edit" button on the employees profile page. 4. Edit relevant fields with appropriate values. 5. Click the "Save" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the profile was successfully edited. The user is redirected back to the employees profile with the relevant updates.

ID	5
Purpose	Test that the administrator cannot edit an employee profile when there are empty fields remaining.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard. Ensure there is at least 1 existing employee account.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employees" page. 2. Click first employee profile display in the table. 3. Click the "Edit" button on the employees profile page. 4. Clear all fields. 5. Click the "Save" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the profile was unsuccessfully edited. The empty fields are highlighted. The page does not navigate away.

ID	6
Purpose	Test that the administrator cannot edit an employee profile when there are fields containing invalid values.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard. Ensure there is at least 1 existing employee account.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employees" page. 2. Click first employee profile display in the table. 3. Click the "Edit" button on the employees profile page. 4. Enter employee age as 5000. 5. Click the "Save" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the profile was unsuccessfully edited. The "age" field is highlighted. The page does not navigate away.

Requirement 3: User Story #4
ID	7
Purpose	Test that the administrator can add a shift of an employee.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard. Ensure there is at least 1 existing employee account.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employee Schedule" page. 2. Click "Add Shift" button. 3. Select an employee from the "Available" list. 4. Select a date from the available "Date" list. 5. Select a time from the available "Time" list. 6. Click the "Save" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the shift was successfully created. The user is navigated back the "Employee Schedule" page. The new shift can now be viewed in the calendar.

ID	8
Purpose	Test that the administrator can edit a shift of an employee
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard. Ensure there is at least 1 existing employee account. Ensure that there is at least 1 existing booking scheduled.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employee Schedule" page. 2. Click "Edit" on one of the scheduled bookings. 3. Select a different employee from the "Available" list. 4. Select a different date from the available "Date" list. 5. Select a different time from the available "Time" list. 6. Click the "Save" button.
Expected Result	System reports that the shift was successfully edited. The user is navigated back the "Employee Schedule" page. The edited shift can now be viewed in the calendar.

Requirement 3: User Story #5
ID	9
Purpose	Test that the administrator can view the summary of all bookings.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard. Ensure there is at least 1 existing booking scheduled.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Bookings" page. 2. Click the "Summary" button.
Expected Result	System displays all current bookings to the user. List is ordered by ascending date and time of bookings.

Requirement 3: User Story #6
ID	10
Purpose	Test that the administrator can view the availabilities of employees.
Setup	Login to the administrator account and navigate to the main dashboard. Ensure there is at least 1 existing employee account.
Steps	1. Navigate to the "Employees" page. 2. Click the first employee in the list. 3. Navigate to the "Availabilities" tab.
Expected Result	Employees availabilities are displayed for each working day in a tabular form.